Willow Class have been learning about space and this week they had a space workshop.

This workshop was fantastic and the children had a great time learning new facts and taking part in lots of fun activities.

Thank you to everyone who entered our annual egg decorating competition. All the entries looked eggs-traordinary!

A very well done to all the winners in each year group!

A big thank you to all the parents who have helped to donate Easter themed items to our Easter raffle. Another thank you to everyone who bought a ticket with all the money going towards resources for our classrooms.

Our annual Egg rolling competition was lots of fun! Well done to our finalists and to our winner!

Parents— Thank you to all the parents that came to our class assemblies this week.

A big thank you to all the parents for helping with all the Easter activities this year!
